To whom it may concern,

Please accept this letter as my enthusiastic support for the "For the Children" organization in Austin, Texas. This organization is truly focused on student success. To some, new school supplies may sound like a small concern. But to a child, having school supplies like all the others in the class is very important! This is one of the first steps toward being ready to learn.

The commitment of "For the Children" also sets them apart. We know we can depend on them to "be there" for our children year after year. As funding for education becomes more and more difficult, our partnership becomes more and more crucial.

Again, please accept this letter in support of the contribution "For the Children" makes to the education of our children.

Sincerely,
